Keynote Proposal

“The Superpower of Addiction – The Unknown Truths”

Abstract

Staying clean is not the only battle an addict faces. That is simply the ticket to the game. It is our fear, guilt and shame that become our unfair opponents.

In this raw and harrowing presentation, Kyle takes the audience on an emotional and thought-provoking journey of addiction and ultimate triumph. From becoming a junkie overnight to notorious meth cook, Kyle holds your hands and hearts detailing his journey of self-discovery from 12 months in solitary confinement, facing a life sentence, to his comeback story as a high-performing sales executive in Silicon Valley. Then, how he left it all to take back his life as a final defiance to fear.

" Kyle's life journey is an inspiration providing hope, shows what is possible when we face our fears and shames. Through his lessons I've learned to embrace a life where my past does not define me. Like me, others can be emboldened to embrace dreams not ruled by fear." – Dan Bryan, US Navy, Officer RET.
